

Dear spencer
Wishing you
a Very Happy Christmas

(And we/I hope
Father Christmouse brings you something special too!)

Lots of love and Christmas hugs

From

NAME of GIVER

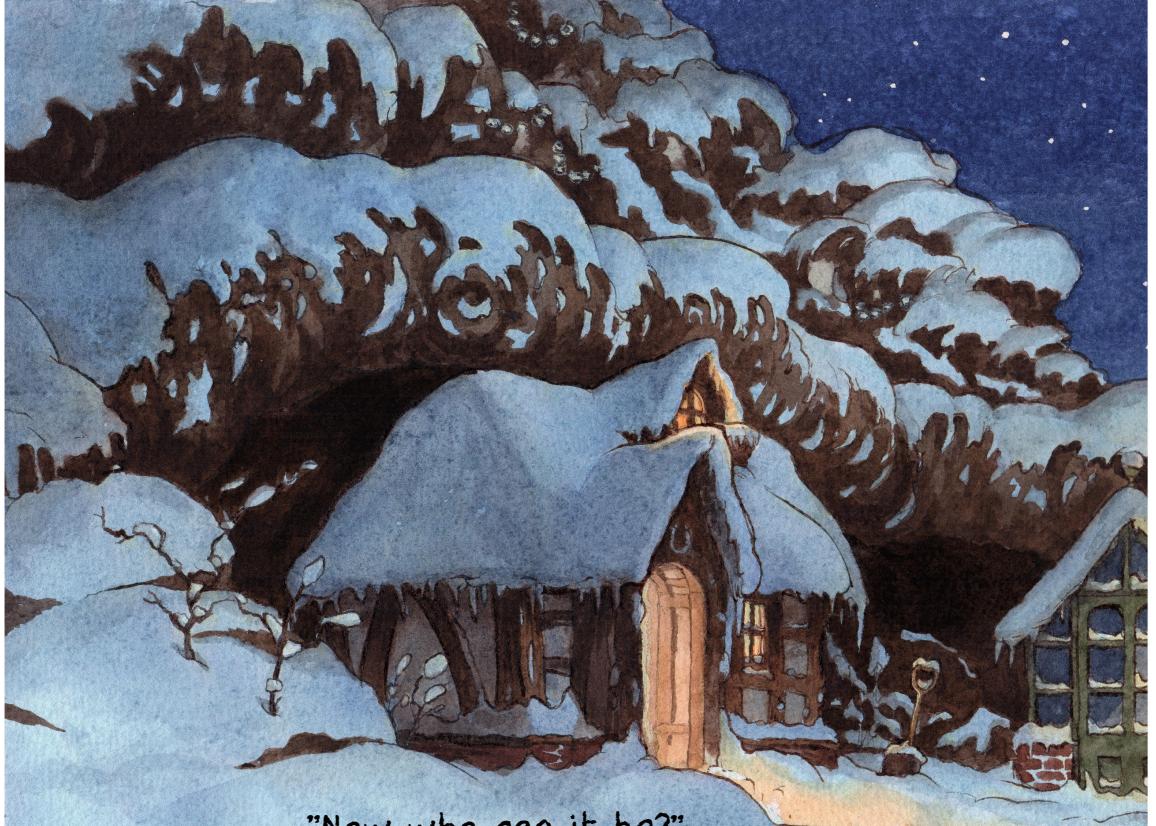

Twas the night before Christmas
And snug in their house
The little mice gathered Around Mummy Mouse.

Can you count them all spencer?
There's 1, 2, 3, 4...
But wait -
What was that?

a knock on the door.

Mummy mouse said, 'Oh my,
I wonder who's there'

"Now who can it be?"
spencer
Can you see who's there?

There's someone quite small
in the cold and the snow
can you see who knocked
Just a moment ago?

Look! There sitting down
At the base of the tree
Is a tiny young mouse
Not as big as a pea.

Mummy mouse said, 'Oh my,
You look colder than ice.
Let me take you inside
Where it's cosy and nice'

So the small mouse was welcomed
And warmed by the fire.
With as much cake and milkshake
As he could desire.

He said, 'Thank you my friends.'
And he sniffed and he smiled.
'These are such lovely treats
For a mouse from the wild.'
